

WEEKLY RECRUITMENT ADS: November 6, 2015

Out on the Shelf is looking for Marketing/Communications Coordinators to develop and execute a dynamic and comprehensive marketing campaign to help rebrand the current organization. The Coordinator will develop marketing, advertising and awareness raising strategies, plans, and objectives. Other duties will include organizing promotional materials and working with volunteers to execute a yearly campaign and assess return on investment metrics. For more information, contact Jeff Schonnop by emailing outontheshelf.volunteer@gmail.com.

East Wellington Community Services requires Shippers for the Online Bookstore. Shippers will prepare books for shipping across Canada, to the USA, or internationally. Volunteers will complete tasks related to filling orders, preparing books for shipping and taking the packages to the Post Office. For more information, contact Barb Carscadden at 519-856-2113 or 519-833-9696 or email barb.c@ew-cs.com.

Grand River Conservation Authority requires Great Canadian Shoreline Cleanup Participants to walk the shoreline of Belwood Lake to clean up litter on Thursday, November 12 from 1-4 pm. There is no minimum or maximum age for this event. Families and groups are welcome to join. All minors must be accompanied and supervised by an adult and have a waiver signed by a parent or guardian. Register for the event, or contact Bronwen Buck for more information at 519-621-2763 ext 2239 or email volunteer@grandriver.ca.

Wellington Early Learning Centres Incorporated requires Board Members from the community for this nonprofit childcare centre. Key efforts for the upcoming year include strategic planning, community relations and fundraising. Board members are expected to attend monthly meetings and participate in committees and special events as appropriate. Background in business, accounting and/or strategic planning would be an asset, but are not necessary. For more information, contact Filomena Raposo at 416-816-1344 or email welcboard@gmail.com.

Torchlight Wellington Dufferin, Distress Line requires CONNECT Program Volunteers to provide outgoing calls to registered individuals (members), offering emotional support for a wide range of real life experiences. Volunteers will engage in collaborative conversation that supports the individual's wellness goals. Volunteers in this position maintain the registered individual's confidentiality and develop consistent support through documentation. Extensive training is provided. For more information, contact Libby Pease at 519-821-3761 or email epease@communitytorchlight.com.

For more information about the Volunteer Centre of Guelph/Wellington visit www.vcgw.ca | call 1-866-693-3318 or (519) 822-0912
email: info@volunteerguelphwellington.on.ca

© 2015 Volunteer Centre of Guelph/Wellington. All rights reserved.